

Like a flower reaching
up to the sun,
I'm growing a little more
with each day begun.
With your love, your hugs,
and all that you do, I'm blooming into someone because of you.

So don't blink too long—time moves so fast,
But these little handprints
are made to last.
A reminder of moments we'll
always hold dear,
Of love that keeps growing
year after year.

Thank you for helping me
flourish and grow,
I love you more than
you'll ever know. 🧡

Love, _____
